

KANSAS ART THERAPY ASSOCIATION PRESENTS:

ALL ABOUT
ETHICS

Presenter: Terry Johnston, ATR-BC, LSCSW
Emporia State University
September 12, 2009
9:00 AM – 12:00 PM

The objective of this workshop is to provide an understanding of ethics in relationship to counseling; emphasized is the application of ethical issues in the area of art therapy. Major topics of review include:

- Client rights and therapist responsibilities
- Confidentiality and documentation
- Managing boundaries and dual relationships
- Therapist role and power
- Client art work (related to display and value)
- Ethics violation guidelines
- Therapist competence

This workshop will involve the use of video clips, experiential exercises, power-point presentation and a question and answer session. Every participant will receive a Certificate of Attendance at the end of the workshop for three contact hours.

AGENDA
8:30 am	Breakfast snacks
9 am-12Noon	Workshop
$25 Non KATA Members
$10 KATA Members
$ 5 Students (ID required)
NO RESERVATIONS NECESSARY
Emporia State University	www.emporia.edu
Vissar Building	Room 330

Terry Johnston is a graduate of Emporia State University being trained by her mentor, Robert Ault, HLM. She has been a member of KATA since its beginning and Chairperson of the Ethics Committee for the past six years. Terry currently works with individuals and families of active duty Army Service Men and Women at Ft. Riley, KS. Her past experience includes individual and group therapy in an in-patient setting for three hospitals. Although Terry graduated with an MSW degree from Washburn University, she continues to rely on her art therapy knowledge and skills which set her apart from fellow social workers.